What is the outcome from your event? (Outcome)

A total of 110 people were attended at World Migratory Bird Day Mongolia-2016. More than 200 school children from three different secondary schools (2nd, 4th and 16th schools of Ulaanbaatar) involved in the “Migratory Bird 2016” art contest. We received over 200 art works.

Anybody who participates in our event gets the latest and updated news and information on migratory birds as well as gets a comprehensive understanding and training on field trips, using research equipment, reading guide books, visit artwork and photography exhibitions, watch documentaries and visit museums. One of the most notable accomplishments from the event was seeing parents enjoy a fun-filled weekend with their children while learning about nature conservation.

Any additional comment? (Optional)

WMBD was been organized every year, delivering real knowledge and information on migratory birds to the public. Thus, number of participants has been growing year by year.

3. SHORT SUMMARY REPORT

Please include the following information (venue, organiser, number and type of participants, outcome, budget spending) and provide photos or video to post together.

With slogan, "Save migratory birds and the place they need", this year WMBD was celebrated by Mongolian Ornithological Society and Ministry of Environment, Green Development, and Tourism of Mongolia with financial support from EAAFP, Selenge bagsh and Mongolica Co.Ltd on 14 May, 2016.

The event consist of several contents including bird identification training, birding activities, lectures and art contest.

We gave introductory presentations on migratory birds at each school (once for each group at each school, twice total at each school) before announcing the competition criteria on 9-11 May.

The Art Contest "Migratory birds 2016", U.Tserenjargal, student from 16th school of Ulaanbaatar, took the first place, M.Ariunjargal from 2nd school for second place, A.Enkhjin took third place.

The artwork competition among secondary school students was organized with the collaboration and in accordance with permission granted by the school principal and teachers. The artwork competition instills nature appreciation in children and allows students to got a better understanding of not only birds, but the environment and the living organisms inhabiting and benefitting from the nature.

Birdwatching trip was organized to Nogoan Lake near Ulaanbaatar city with a group of about 110 participants from secondary schools, universities, local NGOs, tour companies and government.

Lectures and seminars on migratory birds and their conservation activities were given to the participants in the Freshwater Resources and Nature Conservation Center. After lunch, participants enjoyed exhibition of artworks from the Migratory Birds Art Contest.
